

JANUARY 13, 2018
Historic Ebenezer Presents:
Social Justice Workshop “Doing Justice”

Where: MLK Resource Center
101 Jackson Street Atlanta, GA 30312

During the King Holiday Weekend, please join Historic Ebenezer as we begin a year of action to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Dr. King's martyrdom. As we are committed to examining and participating in Dr. King's commitment to economic and social justice, we will begin with a day of reflection and preparation to deepen our personal commitment to “doing justice” in this historical and political moment.

Please sign up to join us for a half day or full day of work**:

10 am- 12:30 pm: “Who We Are”

This time will be spent reflecting with each other about who we really are and how we can come to some collective agreements on what it means to "do justice" and "organize".

1:00 pm- 3:30 pm: “How We Do Justice”

This time will concentrate on local and national priorities during this political moment. What opportunities are there to advance proactive policies? What are your gifts, talents and passions and how can they be used in service of movement building and policy change throughout 2018.

** Please sign up for workshops by 1/2 or full day. Full day participants lunch will be provided
